

1. Martin's Tavern

Dine in the "Proposal Booth" where JFK popped the question to Jackie.

2. 3260 N Street NW

John rented this home 1951–53 while running for senate.

3. 3307 N Street NW

John and Jackie lived here 1957–61 during his 1960 presidential campaign; he went to his inauguration from this home.

4. Holy Trinity Church

The Kennedys worshipped here often while living in Georgetown.

5. 1400 34th Street NW

John shared this home with his sister Eunice Kennedy from 1949 to 1951. Eunice later married Sargent Shriver.

6. 3271 P Street NW

After proposing to Jackie, John made wedding plans in this home in 1953.

7. 3419 Q Street NW

John met Jacqueline Bouvier at a dinner party here in 1951, organized by journalist Charles Bartlett and his wife Martha.

8. 3321 Dent Place NW

The Kennedys, newly married, lived here until back surgery forced John to move them back to Massachusetts.

9. 1528 31st Street NW

While living here during his senate terms from 1946 to 1949, John began making plans for presidential office.

10. 2808 P Street NW

John developed his presidential campaign from this home in 1957 after releasing his book, Profiles in Courage.

11. 3017 N Street NW

The last Kennedy home in Georgetown, security issues in 1964 forced Jackie to leave after John's death.

12. 3038 N Street NW

From here, Jackie mourned the death of her husband, JFK, in 1963.

Important Notice

The homes on this walking tour are private residences. Enjoy the tour from the sidewalks and rights-of-way, but please do respect the privacy of the current owners.

Made possible by Georgetown DC