

RAYMOND ELEMENTARY SCHOOL | WASHINGTON, DC

ARCHITECTURE

Raymond Elementary School, a historic institution in Washington, DC, underwent a remarkable renovation and expansion in alignment with the city's commitment to equitable education. The completed 93,000 SF building and campus, designed to meet LEED Gold and WELL standards and anticipated to achieve Net Zero Energy certification, exemplify a century-old commitment to excellence. As a result of careful planning and smart decision-making, this newly renovated school stands as a testament to the transformative power of design to synthesize the goals of historic preservation and sustainability, and will serve the community equitably for the next 100 years.

YOU are welcome here are UNIQUE can do HARD things MATTER
can succeed are CAPABLE are talented are IMPORTANT are WORTHY are the FUTURE BELONG

Scholar In Action

Dare to Dream, Work to Achieve

ENGAGE EXHIBIT EXPLAIN ELABORATE EVALUATE MORPHOLOGY
Suffixes
Objective: By the end of the lesson, we will identify inflectional and derivational suffixes to determine the meaning of words with 80% accuracy on a exit ticket.
Key Vocabulary: -suffix, -inflectional, -derivational, -prefix
Focus Question: What is the meaning of a morpheme?
Unit 2 Launch-Regions of the United States
Objective: By the end of the lesson, we will identify, locate and discuss features of the 5 regions in the United States in preparation for Unit 3 study with 100% participation on a map.
Key Vocabulary: -region, -climate, -shape, -topography, -landform, -feature
Focus Question: Why is the United States a diverse country?

CLASS JOBS
Greeters
Messengers
Writers
Organizers
Noble
At...
Hall Pass

Parent Information

